

4nd Dec 2020

Research Associate in Chemistry at IIT Gandhinagar

One Research Associate position is immediately available at Indian Institute of Technology Gandhinagar (IITGn), Gandhinagar Gujarat to work on “The Synthesis and Optimization of Industrially Relevant Molecules” under the supervision of Dr. Sriram Kanvah and Dr. Sivapriya Kirubakaran. The project is sponsored by a local Industry. To receive full consideration, applications should be received by 8th December 2020 (Tuesday).

The ideal candidate would have hands-on experience of a variety of synthetic organic chemistry techniques, retrosynthesis and characterization knowledge of NMR and Mass and spectroscopic techniques. This is a short-term project based on the industry requirement.

Desired Qualifications: (Research Associate)

1. PhD in chemistry with strong hands on experience of synthetic organic chemistry. Candidate should have demonstrated publications in international peer-reviewed journals.
2. Salary: 50000 per month.
3. Duration: 7 months

Interested candidates may send their application (through e-mail) with curriculum vitae including giving details of their academic details and research work Research Associates) with names of at least two references to sriram@iitgn.ac.in.

Casual or forwarded emails are not considered. Subject line MUST specify the position. Applications with no subject/ ill-written emails will be summarily rejected. Applications forwarded via job portals will not be considered.

Shortlisted candidates will be intimated through e-mail. Candidates are expected to join immediately if offered. Interviews will be held on 9th December 2020 (Wednesday).

Last date of receipt of applications: (Tuesday: 8th Dec 2020).